

Someone So Real

a slow-building ballad for solo piano, with lyrics — one four-note motif, many colors

original composition

Slowly building (♩ = 72)

the motif — quietly

pp

All the faces on the street,

p

Paper smiles and borrowed charm,

Then a girl who didn't pose,

mp

the hook

Rain on her unguarded arm.

Someone so real, not a reflection, Someone so real, no im-i-ta-tion, Someone so real, and I al-most missed her, Someone so real, real.

growing

She said what she really meant,

Laughed too loud and didn't care,

mf

Every mask I'd ever worn

Fell like leaves in-to the air.

Someone so real,

The musical score is written for solo piano and voice. It features a single melodic line in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The tempo is marked 'Slowly building' with a quarter note equal to 72 beats per minute. The score is divided into systems, each with a measure number (6, 11, 16, 21, 25) at the beginning. Chord symbols are placed above the staff, and lyrics are placed below the staff. Dynamics include pp, p, mp, and mf. A 'hook' is indicated for the phrase 'Someone so real'. The piece ends with a final chord and a fermata.
